Mr. Dulles:

Please note that General Klein is in Washington today and tomorrow and would like an appointment to see you.

Mr. Allen W. Dulles, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Allen:

With my campaign out of the way, I am coming to Washington more frequently again. I haven't talked with you since we saw each other last at the wedding of Bob Taft's son. So much has happened since that time.

I shall be in Washington on Monday and Tuesday of next week (June 21-22). If it is possible to see you, please have your secretary call either my Washington office (STERling 3-2951) or the Mayflower Hotel where I shall be stopping.
